INTRODUCTION

The LUISS Summer School on European and Comparative Company Law: Capital Markets (the “School”) is designed as an add-on to the education of law students as well as graduates with an interest in company law and as an advanced course for practitioners. It will allow participants to prepare for or complement a graduate degree in business law by gaining an in-depth exposure to the theory and practice of company law in Europe and acquiring the tools for dealing with cross-border transactions involving listed companies.

LUISS “Guido Carli” and the Centre for European Company Law – an academic partnership between the universities of Leiden, LUISS “Guido Carli”, Maastricht, Uppsala, Utrecht and the Allert Hand Institute of Advanced Legal Studies – benefit from the co-operation of a group of Harvard Law School graduates and are putting together a set of top academics and practitioners from all over Europe that will offer to participants the invaluable chance to be intellectually challenged by the most cutting-edge issues knowledge in the corporate and capital markets law.

The top faculty, the intensive classes and the interactive mode of instruction make the School a unique opportunity to deepen students’ knowledge in company and capital markets law, while enjoying culture and leisure activities in the beautiful setting that Rome offers in the summer.

PROGRAM

The School will run from July 12 to July 20, 2019 and includes 45 hours of classes divided into 8 sessions (from Monday to Friday, from 2:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., and Saturday, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.), including a Symposium at the end of the course.

All lectures are given in English. Each session will be taught by leading scholars and practitioners who are partners with leading Italian and European law firms. Attendance of classes is compulsory. Each day of classes will encompass lectures, seminars and case studies around the following main areas:

TARGET GROUP

The School is open to candidates who hold a degree in Law, Political Sciences or Economics obtained in Italy or abroad as well as undergraduates.

The School is designed for those candidates who intend to acquire an in-depth knowledge of the most up-to-date issues in EU corporate and capital markets law and aspire to develop an international career in this domain.

ONLINE APPLICATION

Admission is based on the assessment of CVs/resumes of the candidates. A good command of written and spoken English is required. Early application is encouraged. Qualified candidates are admitted on a rolling basis. However, the absolute deadline for submission of the applications is June 10, 2019.

The number of participants is limited to 40.

Applications received after the deadline has expired will be considered only in case additional seats remain available.

Applicants are required to:

- complete the online application form;
- upload their detailed academic and professional CV/resume;
- upload a motivation letter, explaining the reasons for attending the School.

Applicants can access the online application form at the following link:
